Again the mother threw herself upon the coffin and nestled her inlant.

I saw that it was no time to offer consolution She had restrained her grief in the presence of her neighbors, and now that she thought herself alone, she had come forth from her chamber, to moulge a mother's grief.

In a short time the people of the visinity were seen gathering towards the house, with a view of attending the tuneral. The mather impressed a new kiss upon the hips of her dead child. she attered one more barst of grief and shrunk to her chamber ...

In a little while they screwed down the coffin lid, a slight bustle denoted preparation for the procession to the grave. I followed among the very few whom the occasion had called to gether ; and as we intered the city of the dead, I saw by the little heap of freelt furned earth where the lenement of my little favorice was prepared.

The line of followers assembled round the litle grave, and the coffin lay at its mouth. At length the harse numbling of cords and the suppressed sounds of cinds falling far down upon the coffin, told that the dust had been comunited to dust. I looked for the officiating elecman, guu quiera proporce to await his servit e here was none. It was now that I leared for the firmness of the mother, she had been almost distracted with grief when her child lay before her, in her own house -what could susture her when she should look down into the deep.pn, and see at there girt in with the damp.

The fither stepped forward and looked down upon his child he withdrew with clausofous grief. To Dr. Benj. Brundreth:
My dear Sir. I write a few lines to inform you that I have been making use of your Veget ble Universal Pills. I have been afflicted with a comolaint supposed to be coused by PAINT Two subject to a great coldness through my whole sys-tem, attended with frequent pain and severe cholries; for the year, I have also been "subject to fits, which would seize me in the night, and when I have come to myself, I have been as weak as a child. I ain ready to state the facts more particularly, and how the medicine acted upon me, at my residence. No. 17 Sudbury street, to say one who wishes to

A fact the medicine has been of very great service and that the diseases under which I labored have been by it ENTIRELY REMOVED, for which I skall ever feel grateful to Providence and to you. Believe me to temain.

Very respectfully, JOHN LUMMUS, Buston 17 Sudbury street.
